SHERIFF BOBBY F. KIMBROUGH, JR. ENDORSES TERRI LEGRAND FOR NORTH CAROLINA SENATE

Kernersville, NC – Today, Terri LeGrand’s campaign announced the endorsement of Forsyth County Sheriff Bobby F. Kimbrough, Jr.

“In order for us to be greater, we must empower and find leaders that are bridge builders, that are inclusive. One that will give a voice to all of us,” said Kimbrough. “I believe that Terri LeGrand is that voice. She is that leadership that will be inclusive. One that will build bridges rather than tear bridges down. That is why I am supporting Terri LeGrand, a bridge-builder for all of us for a greater place and a greater United States.”

“I’m incredibly grateful to have the support of my friend Sheriff Kimbrough,” said LeGrand. “Our campaign is bringing people together and I’m looking forward to working with Sheriff Kimbrough to make our shared vision of building safer, stronger communities a reality.”

Sheriff Kimbrough’s endorsement comes amidst a surge of support for LeGrand.
