TERRI LEGRAND OUTPACES JOYCE KRAWIEC IN FOURTH QUARTER FUNDRAISING

Kernersville, NC – Terri LeGrand’s campaign for North Carolina Senate outraised incumbent Senator, Joyce Krawiec, in the 4th Quarter in 2019. Final fundraising numbers were due to the state elections board by the end of day, January 31. Terri LeGrand raised $109,777.32, while Joyce Krawiec’s filing with the Board of Elections shows she raised $20,150, only $250 of which was from individuals. LeGrand received $108,527.32 from individuals, while Krawiec only received a single $250.00 contribution from an out-of-state person. The remaining $19,900 she raised came from corporations.

“In just six weeks, our campaign raised over $109,000,” said LeGrand. “Our message is resonating - we need leaders who will listen and lead.”

LeGrand continued, “We’re building a movement to bring ethical representation back to Raleigh. Unlike my opponent, I’m not beholden to large corporations, and I’m not taking a dime in corporate PAC contributions.”

Terri LeGrand’s fundraising haul is the largest of any Democratic state senate challenger. More than half of LeGrand’s donations were small-dollar contributions of $250 or less, and over 94% of her donations were in-state.
