Terri LeGrand Endorsed by EMILY's List

Kernersville, NC – EMILY's List, the nation's largest organization and resource for women in politics, announced today that it endorsed Terri LeGrand.

"I'm honored to be endorsed by EMILY's List. I share their commitment to electing a government that represents the people it serves, that values a diversity of voices, and that works to create opportunity for everyone," said North Carolina Senate Candidate Terri LeGrand.

"Terri LeGrand's commitment to the environment is unwavering. As the co-founder of the Piedmont Earth Day Fair and Piedmont Environmental Alliance, she believes that all North Carolinians should live in healthy, sustainable communities," said Geri Prado, vice president of state and local campaigns at EMILY's List. "We are excited to endorse her for NC Senate District 31."

EMILY's List endorsements generate tremendous energy and fundraising for a campaign. When candidates are featured, current and new supporters gain more certainty that the candidate is on track to win.
