Planned Parenthood Votes! South Atlantic Endorses Terri LeGrand

Kernersville, NC – Terri LeGrand is proud to be endorsed by Planned Parenthood Votes South Atlantic. The PPVSAT is the advocacy wing of Planned Parenthood South Atlantic, and advocates for public policies that will protect and expand access to the range of reproductive health services and education programs Planned Parenthood provides throughout the state.

“Thank you to PPVSAT for endorsing my campaign for Senate District 31,” said LeGrand. “I’m dedicated to expanding accessible, affordable healthcare for all North Carolinians, and for women, healthcare options must include medically-sound reproductive health options as well.”

“In this unprecedented moment, we need bold leadership from elected officials who are committed to improving the health of all North Carolinians,” said Susanna Birdsong, Director of Public Affairs for Planned Parenthood South Atlantic. “We can count on Terri LeGrand to keep politicians out of a woman’s personal pregnancy decisions and instead promote access to basic health care like birth control and lifesaving cancer screenings. She will be the champion we need for reproductive health care in the Triad.”
