Terri LeGrand Outraises Joyce Krawiec for the Third Quarter in a Row

Kernersville, NC – Today, Terri LeGrand, the Democratic candidate for North Carolina State Senate District 31, announced that her campaign raised more than $290,000 in the third fundraising quarter of her campaign. She will report raising $293,292.58 in the second quarter of 2020 and $465,942.13 raised over the course of the campaign.”

“I’m humbled by the support we’ve received,” said Terri LeGrand, Democratic nominee for Senate District 31. “People are excited about this campaign because we’re bringing real change to North Carolina. Our support is surging because citizens of this district know that I will fight for working families when I get to Raleigh.”

LeGrand continued, “Unlike Joyce Krawiec, I’m not bought by special interests. I have not taken any corporate PAC money, instead my donors are hard working people looking for change”

Highlights:

- Terri received contributions from more than 800 individuals in the second quarter, 77% of whom contributed $100 or less. Krawiec received contributions from 16 individuals.
- Terri has a cash on hand advantage of more than $220,000.
- More than 47% of Joyce Krawiec’s contributions come from corporate PAC’s - including $5,400.00 from Truist North Carolina PAC (formerly BB&T). Zero percent of LeGrand’s contributions come from big banks or corporations.
