President Barack Obama Endorses Terri LeGrand

Kernersville, NC – Today, President Barack Obama officially endorsed Democratic candidate for North Carolina Senate District 31 Terri LeGrand.

“Today, I’m proud to receive the endorsement of President Obama. This election is one of the most important elections of our lifetime,” said Democratic candidate Terri LeGrand. “We’re building a movement that will take on special interests and fight for all North Carolinians.”

President Obama announced the endorsement on August 3, along with a list of endorsements around the country. President Obama released the following statement:

“I’m proud to endorse this diverse and hopeful collection of thoughtful, empathetic, and highly qualified Democrats. Together, these candidates will help us redeem our country’s promise by sticking up for working class people, restoring fairness and opportunity to our system, and fighting for the good of all Americans — not just those at the top. They make me optimistic not just about our party’s chances in November, but about our country’s future long after that. So if you’re in one of their districts or states, make sure you vote for them this fall. And if you can, vote early — by mail or in person.”
